

NEW YORK STATE STATEMENT OF INTENT TO RETURN HOME

I, _____, hereby state and declare that my current residence at _____, or another home or apartment I may move to in the future, is where I desire and intend to live for the remaining days and years of my life. If at any time I am in need of hospital care, nursing home care or rehabilitative services, I am stating with my clear mind my absolute and unquestionable intention to return to my home as soon as practical. I do not want to spend my final days in a nursing home, rehabilitative center, or any other medical or assisted living facility. This is my clear and unequivocal expression of my intent to return home and should be considered my continuing request if ever I am unable to communicate my wishes or intentions.
